

The range of aluminised clothing has been designed for close proximity fire fighting and rescue duties where protection from intense heat and flamelick is essential.

Manufactured from high performance aluminised Rayon tested in accordance with BS 5438/6249 and supplied with or without non flammable linings.

a One piece suit with pouch to accommodate breathing apparatus with heavy duty front off-set zip, with zips on cuffs and ankles complete with fire crash helmet, five finger gauntlet gloves and aluminised boots.

b Two piece suit comprising jacket with velcro front fastening, Trouser, bib style with adjustable braces complete with adjustable braces complete with industrial style heavy duty helmet to BS5240, five finger gauntlet gloves and rubber boots.

- options:
- Aluminised hood
  - Fire Crash Boots (Blue Suede)
  - Leather Boots
  - Aluminised Boots
  - Three Finger Gauntlet Gloves
  - Mitten Style Gauntlet Gloves

- Volume cycled resuscitation for patients who are not breathing
  - Auto-switch to breathing on demand when patient begins to breath spontaneously
  - Auto-return to cycled resuscitation should spontaneous breathing fail
  - Easy-to-set flow selector no need to tune control module
  - Override trigger for manual resuscitation with CPM (Cardio Pulmonary Massage)
  - Audible alarm warns of airway blockage
  - Oxygen therapy facility can be used at the same time as automatic or manual resuscitation without any need to switch-over. MARS can offer one patient therapy whilst resuscitating another
  - Provides an isolated resuscitation environment Ideal for use in toxic atmospheres
  - Minimum servicing required plus full spares and service back-up
- Dimensions
520mm x 370mm x 180mm
- Typical weight 8Kg (dependent on cylinder size)